3. What can I do in rainy weather?

It rarely rains here in Jenesien - and if it does, then you will also find exciting activities for such days. For example, visit our Haflinger Museum and the neo-Gothic parish church in the centre of the village. Or go on unforgettable excursions to Bolzano: A panoramic road takes you into the valley in just ten minutes, even by bus, into a lively mix of cultures, languages and architectural styles. Discover art and culture, live shopping experiences, historical artefacts, lively markets, cool locations and so much more!

5. Are there any recommendations for beautiful hikes around Jenesien?

There is something for everyone in our hiking area with its many flat and easygoing trails. These include our exciting themed trails, many of which are waiting to be discovered around Jenesien. One leads over the highest and longest suspension bridge in South Tyrol, another takes you into the magical world of legends in the surrounding area, another invites you to reflect and yet another tells of Haflinger horses and larches. Go on a journey of discovery - on one of South Tyrol's many themed trails here in Jenesien!

6. Is the cable car to Jenesien running again?

Unfortunately not at the moment. The old structure has been dismantled, and the new one is still under construction. The new cable car is expected to resume operations in 2028.
